

Without Doubt

Young MC

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Gonna do it like this
Break em off. Break em on now
And rock this place without doubt
Rock this place without doubt
Rock this place without doubt
Rock this place without doubt
Check me out

Now when I came in the door, I heard it before
"I didn't know Young was making records anymore."
Well yes I am honey. It ain't so damn funny
Cause a brother gotta eat, gotta make my damn money
Let 'em in till we pack it, with the skirt and the jacket
It pays in ways just to raise my tax bracket
And if you can't hack it best to step outside
Cause that beef stuff is dead like formaldehyde
I'm a lover not a fighter, a fly rhyme writer
Making lyrics from scratch to make the rhyme tighter
No typewriter, just a pen and a pad
Cause I've been making records since I was an undergrad
So trip this as I rip this and I flip this
Throat gets sore, I get the Halls Mentholyptus
And grip this mic till the rhymes come out
And rock this place, without doubt

Yo, do you wanna bounce tonight?
You see a fine lady in the house tonight
She's lookin' kinda lovely in a blouse tonight
Well go and check her out
And rock this place without doubt
Baby do you wanna dance with me?
And when we're dancin' maybe hold your hands with me?
I know you're going home but change your plans with me
So we can turn it out and rock this place without doubt

Now like a baby need a diaper I need a girl that's my type of Hyper, smooth like a windshield wiper
Swipe her off her feet and let's go
To the private afterparty jumpin after the show
So as the fun now thickens and somehow quickens
We gotta keep it spicy like Kung Pao Chicken
And Young now kickin' the rhyme off the track
Like the Black Eyed Peas said, "I'm bringing it back," Cause MC's with bad diction always tellin' stories 'bout street crime fictio n
Hating every cop regardless of jurisdiction
Straight dereliction to me, G, it's kinda sick son
See because I got a prediction
I could rock a party with no crime conviction
And bust a rhyme with a dirty word restriction and still turn it out
And rock this place, without doubt

Yo, do you wanna bounce tonight?
You see a fine lady in the house tonight
She's lookin' kinda lovely in a blouse tonight
Well go and check her out

And rock this place without doubt

See I'm an MC vet. Ain't been intimidated by an MC yet
And more player hated than an MC should get
But still I don't sweat. It takes more than haters to get me upset
Cause I'm optimistic, not simplistic
Love the O Jays and the Stylistics
Love strong women. Not chauvinistic
Cause character is one of my characteristics
Fully grown. Hard like stone
Known to get wicked on the microphone
One of a kind with no twin or clone
Cause I got more rhymes than skeletons got bones
Yo homes, look at that girl in the corner
Damn she's fly. No guy. She's a loner
Better make a move right quick if you want her
If you don't someone else'll be all up on her
Man she's colder. Think it's 'bout time somebody told her
Walk up from behind, put your hand on her shoulder
And then give a shout and rock this place without doubt

Yo, do you wanna bounce tonight?
You see a fine lady in the house tonight
She's lookin' kinda lovely in a blouse tonight
Well go and check her out
And rock this place without doubt
Baby do you wanna dance with me?
And when we're dancin' maybe hold your hands with me?
I know you're going home but change your plans with me

Yeah, party people, rock this place without doubt
Young MC, 2-double O-2, as we rock this place without doubt
Party, party people, ha, rock this place without doubt
Break it down. Rock this place without doubt
You know, rock this place without doubt
Rock this place without doubt
Rock this place without doubt
Rock this place without doubt
