

Ruby Retrograde

Young Rising Sons

Shouting crimson and clover
Over your shoulder
Threw down your phone
We had nowhere to be
And your hair was blowing
Strawberry golden
Scared to be open
Like that gap in your teeth

Is this just how it feels to get older
I've been trying to go back to that moment

Falling into ultraviolet
Indigo shining
I'm just trying to find your ruby retrograde
Time keeps flying
Head up in the sky and
I'm just trying to find your ruby retrograde

Swimming in my head
Spilling your sunset
Breakfast in bed
Peeling your tangerine
Now everything's different
I miss the days when
It felt like the world
Was only you and me

Falling into ultraviolet
Indigo shining
I'm just trying to find your ruby retrograde
Time keeps flying
Head up in the sky and
I'm just trying to find your ruby retrograde
