

Ride Waves

Young Scooter

Yeah

I don't ride waves, I don't ride waves

Haha, yeah

Chophouze on the track

Create my own wave, built my own lane

I don't ride waves, I ride cars and planes

Create my own wave, built my own lane

I don't ride waves, I ride cars and planes

I don't ride waves, I don't ride waves

I don't ride waves, I don't ride waves

I don't ride waves, I ride cars and planes

Salute the real bangers, but I don't gang bang (Jugg)

I don't gang bang, I let my chain swang

I ain't in the rap game, I'm in the dope game

All you dickriders goin' to the hall of fame

Young Scooter, Street, I got two names

All my friends are dead, bitch I'm talkin' bout racks

The dead presidents, I got a lot of that

If a nigga play with me, I tell him, "Roger that"

Five hundred pounds a week, a year, I pre-order that

I ain't got no surfboard, bitch I work for it

I'm Lil Mexico's landlord

The only rapper thats seen more pounds than Boss and George

Freebandz, a circle full of bosses, boy

Create my own wave, built my own lane

I don't ride waves, I ride cars and planes

Create my own wave, built my own lane

I don't ride waves, I ride cars and planes

I don't ride waves, I don't ride waves

I don't ride waves, I don't ride waves

I don't ride waves, I ride cars and planes

Salute the real bangers, but I don't gang bang (Jugg)

I'm a wave creator, I know construction, a brick decorator

I really came from nothin', I'm from the slums, you was born a hater

I really jugg truckloads, spot hotter than a radiator

Black Amigo, Freebandz, we turned that shit into a label

Create my own wave, I make millions off it

Treat the trap like Lauryn Hill, how I kill 'em softly

I always got 'em on my face, they ain't never cost me

Nigga I re-up with nothin', still plug talkin'

Hundred racks in the Fendi back

Two-hundred racks in that Louis bag

I only sell swag weed, but I smoke real gas

Hundred pounds in the trash bag

Throw 'em in the trunk and hit the slab

Most of you niggas be dick riders, broke as hell with no cash

Create my own wave, built my own lane

I don't ride waves, I ride cars and planes

Create my own wave, built my own lane

I don't ride waves, I ride cars and planes

I don't ride waves, I don't ride waves

I don't ride waves, I don't ride waves

I don't ride waves, I ride cars and planes
Salute the real bangers, but I don't gang bang (Jugg)
