

Emotionally High

Young Summer

Blue lights I gotta cover my eyes now
So I don't dive into the deep end
I have the worst time getting out

How does it feel not to feel it all of the time
'Cause I can feel everything just like it's mine

You catch me living in the past I'm anchored to
What I should be over and done with
I'm so emotionally high now will it pass?
Feeling all the fears and attachments

I'm so emotionally high, high, high
Emotionally high, high, high
Emotionally high

Mornings I see the light through the window
Until the noise drowns out the birds
It's a sensory haze I've fallen into everything you been through h

How does it feel not to feel it all of the time
'Cause I can feel everything just like it's mine

You catch me living in the past I'm anchored to
What I should be over and done with
I'm so emotionally high now will it pass?
Feeling all the fears and attachments

I'm so emotionally high, high, high
Emotionally high, high, high
Emotionally high
