

Fallout

Young Summer

Bad break
Reset the bone
How long will this take
This take

Same lies
Against the wall
The way the wolf cries
The wolf cries

I hear your heart skipping
Somewhere in the distance (stop)
I hear your heart skipping
I hear your heart
I hear your heart

I'm not one to sharpen knives
I'm ready for some peace of mind
I'm standing at the edge tonight
Brace for the fall out

Stone faced
Relay the word
As long as it takes
It takes

Firefight
We closed the gate
Survived the daylight
The daylight

I hear your heart skipping
Somewhere in the distance (stop)
I hear your heart skipping
I hear your heart
I hear your heart

What if I can't
What if I can't
What if I can't... do it

I'm not one to sharpen knives
I'm ready for some peace of mind
I'm standing at the edge tonight
Brace for the fall out

I'm not one to sharpen knives
I'm ready for some peace of mind
I'm standing at the edge tonight
Brace for the fall out
