

Half the Time

Young Summer

Just throwing rocks at the moon with a few good friends that yo u don't know in late December
Took a trip with me and my summer sisters had to get some breat hing room under this thimble
Full tank right through the low country
Just throwing rocks at the moon with a few good friends that yo
u don't know in late December
Took a trip with me and my summer sisters had to get some breat
hing room under this thimble
Full tank right through the low country

Half the time you're just wondering why I don't think about you
Half the time you're just wondering why I don't think about you
But I am
And I do

Those blue eyes were a gateway drug that I still crave in certa in states a bit shaken up Are you laughing behind an empty glass where nothing's funny or going along like you always did Heart filled while the dice rolls lonesome

Half the time you're just wondering why I don't think about you
Half the time you're just wondering why I don't think about you
But I am
And I do

Guess I'm not a skeptic after all your kissing lips they won't kiss back
You're a bedtime story
I'm flying over hometown winter third row down just left from c enter
Will you meet me here?
Find a new life and make a clean cut

Half the time you're just wondering why I don't think about you
Half the time you're just wondering why I don't think about you
But I am
And I do
But I am and I do

Half the time
Half the time
Half the time