

If the World Falls to Pieces

Young Summer

Now we have nothing left to lose
Flames look beautiful if you forget what they can do
If they only knew

Oh, at least we can say we tried
Never gave up, didn't go down without a fight
Into the night, into the night

Come sit by the window
To see from a better view
If the world falls to pieces
At least I'll be with you

I'll save you
You'd save me too

Come sit by the window
To see from a better view
If the world falls to pieces
At least I'll be with you
At least I'll be with you
