

Save The World

Young Summer

You have your reasons
To turn your back
It comes in seasons
The courage you have

Don't say you're sorry
Just stay here and fight
It's already too late
To lay down and die

You could be the one
You could be the one
You could be the one
Who saves the world

Walls that divide us
Are all that remain
The struggle inside us
Is one and the same

You may never know glory
Your heart's bound to break
Will you be the story
They tell in it's wake

You could be the one
You could be the one
You could be the one
Who saves the world
Who saves the world
Who saves the world
You could be the one
You could be the one
You could be the one
Who saves the world
You could be the one
You could be the one
You could be the one
Who saves the world
