

Siren

Young Summer

He lives alone
Can't survive in the golden lights
He finds a note
Chase the thread to the other side
A sinking star
Falling fast to outrun the light
Become a taunt
Before we see what we never find
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me
Like a siren. A siren
So, let the game begin!
I walk away but it'd be no use
And for my sins
I feel ashamed, but I have the truth
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me
Like a siren
Like a siren
I. When you go, you leave with the best of me
I. When you go, you leave with the best of me
I. When you go, you leave with the best of me
I. When you go, you leave with the best of me
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me, calling you, calling your attention
Got me
Like a siren. A siren
Like a siren
