

Stay The Same

Young Summer

Gasp for air and find your shade
Reaching out with barricades
It's what you do I can't get through

You belong to the light
There's a fire in your eyes
You belong to the light
There's a fire in your eyes

Holding on to you
But you won't hold me too
I should tell the truth
I could stay, I could stay
But you won't stay the same

You started fires and played your part
Washed up for miles, left broken hearts
It's what you do, it's nothing new

You belong to the light (to the light)
There's a fire in your eyes (in your eyes)

Holding on to you
But you won't hold me too
I should tell the truth
I could stay, I could stay
But you won't stay the same

You're gonna change, gonna change, gonna change
Gonna change, gonna change, gonna change, gonna change

Holding on to you
But you won't hold me too
I should tell the truth
I could stay, I could stay
But you won't stay the same
