

Why Try

Young Summer

The cards faced up
Times are tough
What are we losing?
If we give it up

Watching it all from one side
You can only tell me
Why try
Why try

I toss you turn
Who takes first?
Some would say we're
A story unheard

Watching it all from one side
You can only tell me, what's on your mind
Why try
Why try
Why try
Why try

Maybe by morning
Tomorrow this time
Maybe by morning
You'll realize why

I tried
I tried
I tried
I tried
