It's a tough place, baby, look around
They won't stand wid you when you fall down
I'm here, I'm just reversing in your compound
She hot like caliente, thick and profound
I'm up, I got the Plain Jane, got the buss down
Up suh, but she soon to come down (Yeah)

Bust a window keep it open for air
'Cause I know what's bout to happen when you hold up your hair
I'd be lying if I told you my age
But girl you whining like your 'posed to be paid
Pull the curtain down and close it for shade
Get it popping, when we're done, there ain't no hope for the maid
