

Ayy, we gon' speed it up
We gon' slow it down

I say oh my God, I'm scarred
It's hard, so can you end it
I'm a bad motherfucker
Bullets through the car, it's war
That rod, I tote it, I ain't slippin'
When I fell back, I noticed this
How you was lying and I was running with' the time
While you was dreaming that I'm dying
I got hasten on my brain
With a brick up on my mind
With a icy slave chain 'cause I'm rich and can't move 'round
I go wrong by loving you
You talking down and that's not true
Them people 'round using you
If I kill her, I kill you too
Said you want go back to your ex
You fucking with that nigga too
And while you fuck me, in your head, you picture him, you doing it too
You know stepped on that lil' boy
I tried to kill a brother too
And I got pounds by the low
You done see me distribute
You know that girl who diagnosed me
With that shit, I gave to you
Get at me, I get at you
Shit on me, I shit on you

Tell your secrets to the only thing that come out at night
Attention seeking, how the fuck they leave me traumatized?
They know like I know, they better run, they never come outside
We'll shot and stay low
And let it blow until you niggas die

I say mirror, mirror on the wall
Who the realest of them all?
Who told the truth and never let the people see your flaws
And who the fuck got all these hoes, thinking that they raw
And who been killing all these niggas, while based outta town
And who the fuck said you lil' bitches could re-do my song?
And either one of these lil' bitches can't say I ain't hold it down
She tried to bless me with that pussy, told her hold it down
Let's play a game, just close your eyes and lemme burn you down
