YoungBoy Never Broke Again

Ohh

Show you somethin' you never seen
Yeah

I don't fit right, anomalies
And I don't accept how you lyin' to me
And see yourself all in my dreams
Show you somethin' you never seen

I don't seem to understand these things
I be rollin' outta bounds
I keep a beam steady goin' on lean
Love over passion, tell me what it mean
Live like a gangster, I don't fit right with them things
Money talkin' like a preacher, blew that strap in the bottom
He tried runnin', knew they was comin', bounty hunters done caught him
Toss all yo' feelings in the leg once they locked in the bottom
I'm too aggressive, please excuse me
You know how I'm rockin', I'm thuggin'

I don't fit right, anomalies
And I don't accept how you lyin' to me
And see yourself all in my dreams
Show you somethin' you never seen
I don't fit right, anomalies
And I don't accept how you lyin' to me
And see yourself all in my dreams
Show you somethin' you never seen

You actin' funny all of a sudden
Well, bitch, just say you don't love me
Infiltratin', gone on occasions like you tryna hide somethin'
I never lie, always cement 'cause I be feelin' like, "fuck it"
I wouldn't want you to lie to me, you happy when you leave
I been done dirty and I'm scarred so I don't fuck with no bitch
You probably fucked him but I still won't let a hoe suck my dick
You got me fucking' up my song 'cause I'm so mad about the shit
I just got spirits on my phone, it ain't no human you bitch, haha

I don't fit right, anomalies
And I don't accept how you lyin' to me
And see yourself all in my dreams
Show you somethin' you never seen
I don't fit right, anomalies
And I don't accept how you lyin' to me
And see yourself all in my dreams
Show you somethin' you never seen
