

Bangin My Line

YoungBoy Never Broke Again

(Say, 10)
(Slickk, you made this one)
(Run it, run it, run it)
(Skeeo, you're crazy)

And she banging my line, picking my mind
Ho don't you try, not this time
Ain't coming up off of my grind
Look, boy, you best keep your iron
Keep your head up, you'll be fine
The whole world been looking for slime
They can't wait to see me this time

Going in with the same niggas, dead in in the north, I bang with 'em
Head cold, I was broke, came up with some money, know that beef ain't nothin', left stains with 'em
Been knew that I'd be that nigga ever since I was little Me and DDawg on the bus going to Capitol middle
I'm important so I got two security with me
But you know I'm still toting on that strap in the middle Don't shoot for a nigga, best believe I'ma send 'em
Every night on my knees, best believe I'm a sinner
Blowing up my phone stuntin' like she feel me
But, I know she got a nigga
No, these hoes just want me buy her dope
Oh no, I just poured a four, she gon' watch me drink it slow
Sweet, lean, lean, lean, I'm 'bout secret things
Help what's inside of me, shawty keep riding me
Sweet, lean, lean, lean I keep you on side of me
They tryna pull on side of me, just to put that fire on me
Oh, your love
It give me a rush, now this the love for a thug
Now look, I don't wanna rush, 'cause I don't know how to love
She wanna drink my cough syrup, she wanna drink my potion
They ain't got no motion, they just want me to notice them
Blow on them, blow up them
Attention that they seeking, can't throw no brick and hide, I know it
's him
The fuck this nigga think, his ho she

She banging my line, picking my mind
Ho don't you try, not this time
Ain't coming up off of my grind
Look, boy, you best keep your iron
Keep your head up, you'll be fine
The whole world been looking for slime
They can't wait to see me this time

Aight, for sure, just hit me back
Nah, hit me back when you get from with your pussy-ass boyfriend
I'm just fucking with you, slime
