

Left And Came Back

YoungBoy Never Broke Again

I woke up this morning
I'm like I don't know what it is
But something is telling me to make it right like
You stand up this time
I'm really a slime doe
No I ain't
I be making sure I have feelings towards a lot of shit
You hear me

I left and came back
But now you left and you ain't coming back
I'm who I am, and I can't change that I want no one else, but now I notice that They don't know no one else, but they notice me
I got problems for real, and I got ties with them B's
My lil partner got killed
He was dying behind me
I'll kill 'em all that's on my soul
I can't go till they leave

I drop them bands till they can't breathe
I go bulletproof the Jeep
I lost my heart inside these streets
It ain't nothing else for to do but achieve
Every street nigga, every real bitch fuck with me
I told my brother matter of fact, they fuck with us
We the ones did it nigga, we the realest we ain't never stand d own
We ain't leave our family, only thing we ever left was a man do wn
Probably my past be the main reason that she done now
Searching up your number 2 in the morning
Call then end, hoping that you call back
You ain't never left I'm going nowhere
I hope that's how you feeling but some say it ain't close to th
