

Rain

YoungBoy Never Broke Again

(Drum Dummie)

Can you tell me if it's storming
Don't wan' be wrong by askin' you to go
Tell me if it's rainin', I don't wanna look outside my window

Please, please don't please me
Leave, please just leave me (Just leave)

Leave me to be by myself, I could be sad all alone
Guess I'm just another broken song
I been workin' professor of the knowledge
By time, I increase
This is special, you bought a new body but ain't excitin' me
Prayers go to the sky from off my heart off top my knees
What you sow and did you reap
Take a picture with no cheese
Ain't two ways, no money in my hand, or no smile on top of me
I just want to get the fuck from out the streets
I ain't weak, but beat
If my life was on the line, would it be the same?
I'm the same way that I came, never change
Watchin' my life go down the drain
Do you see a piece of your life inside this pain?
Surely one more time, explain
This a two-hundred-thousand stain

Can you tell me if it's storming
Don't wan' be wrong by askin' you to go
Tell me if it's rainin', I don't wanna look outside my window

Stay down, that's what I'm missed for
And this ain't right, somethin' else ain't addin' up
I told 'em all about my pain, been maneuverin' through the game
But, after all, they still down us and drag us
My aunty got a tumour, my uncle, he just coolin'
My brother Jaz just crosses away, stickin' to his music
Tell my daddy that I'm fine
See survival in my eyes
Me and Montana got to lie, tell 'em go update the file, we on top

Can you tell me if it's storming
Don't wan' be wrong by askin' you to go
Tell me if it's rainin', I don't wanna look outside my window

Please, please don't please me
Leave, please just leave me (Gangsta Grillz)

I mean, how you gon' leave me on a rainy day?
You not even gon' let the sun come out first?
You got it
