

I woke up I ain't see nobody in my bed, in my bed
After all that I love you
You ain't say what I did, Tell me what I did
Fuck that Rolls Royce I just wanna lose this cold heart
I just wanna say I apologize for all of the things I put you through
Baby I then ran that money all up
These hoes mistreated me and baby you can't fault them
Tell my why you left me I'm like awe
Them hitters come just ring the alarm, Let's go

Anger ran them all off, feelings made them just go
Life on line in the North and I'm sittin here mad bout a hoe
Who been chosin it with me and I can't sit and just watch
I wasted time don't give a fuck bout no clock
These diamonds crushed they just rocks
That's a Double-R Rolls Royce Range Rover Really rich
Rockstar High as fuck Hangover
Let you come and fuck me til my pain over
Ok, respect that girl so much don't won't no muthafuckin brain from her
Lean lean codeine and my child
That's all I want that's all I need
And plus some money and my Glock
Passport get overseas I can buy another foreign car
Can buy a bitch to feed my needs
Can't buy another slime heart

I woke up ain't see nobody in my bed in my bed
After all that I love you
You ain't say what I did, tell me what I did

Its a panoramic four seater
Never let me go, I leave my hoes cus I don't need em
Staring in your eyes tryna see potential like a soul seeker
Lying in my eyes saying you love me you a cold creature
Fuck that shit you said just leave cus I don't need you
I'm gonna let that other nigga treat you
My song playing loud through the speakers
For you, decide for the party at
Leaving you never crossed my mind
You wrong if you ever thought of that
Now you call I ain't ever calling back

I'm staying strong now don't worry about me
The things that you did, I'll never forget
If you keep it real you can get the world out me
We can share it all to me it don't mean shit

Fuck that Rolls Royce I just wanna lose this cold heart
I just wanna say I apologize for all of the things I put you through
Baby I then ran that money all up
These hoes mistreated me and baby you can't fault them
Tell my why you left me I'm like awe
Them hitters come just ring the alarm, Let's go
