

Worth It

YoungBoy Never Broke Again

Dubba-AA flex
Yeah, yeah, yeah
They say you feel what you don't know
But you really feel what you know
DJ Swift on the track

Would it all get better, yeah
Tell me was it all worth it?
No fortune teller make me clever, yeah
Deep inside I been hurtin'
Tired of tryin' and I'm sick of crying-ing
I been searchin' mind-inds, baby I been lurking, yeah
You left me clueless time after time
I'm behind the blind-inds, I open up the curtains, yeah
Did you do this shit on purpose?
Did you do this shit on purpose? yeah
I ain't do that shit on purpose, yeah
Swear I ain't do that shit on purpose, yeah

It's the Father up in the sky, I be stressin' at night
Livin' life up in the wrong and I know it ain't right
Always said that love is poison, take control of my life
I'm immortal, I never die, I'll never let go my pride
I got them racks on me now, drive-bys, nigga I make the news
My past is haunting me now, run away, last thing for to do
Young nigga reckless, I don't follow rules
Never a change that never I'll do
Committed to you so I never'll choose
Deep in that ocean, my love is for you

Whole lot of bread I got, you want it, you got it off top
Never break, heart hard like a rock
Got my back on the wall like a clock
To the top from the ground, can't flop
Stole all my love so I closed up shop
'Fore I let a nigga play you, swear I die
Why I'm crushin' on Loyalty, I don't know why
Never ever saw a dove cry
When I stare in your eye I can tell that's a lie
When you ask me somethin' I keep it real
Why you not honest? I don't know why
Got four sons but I want five
I want you to have my child
Say that I hurt you, ain't do it on purpose
Pride level sit at most high

I'm not really loyal, yeah
I sit there and lie, and I wonder why he don't trust nobody, yeah
Why though?
I hope that's what you're sittin' there thinkin' to yourself

Would it all get better, yeah
Tell me was it all worth it?
No fortune teller make me clever, yeah
Deep inside I been hurtin'
Tired of tryin' and I'm sick of crying-ing
I been searchin' mind-inds, baby I been lurking, yeah

You left me clueless time after time
I'm behind the blind-inds, I open up the curtains, yeah
Did you do this shit on purpose?
Did you do this shit on purpose? yeah
I ain't do that shit on purpose, yeah
Swear I ain't do that shit on purpose, yeah

It's the Father up in the sky, I be stressin' at night
Livin' life up in the wrong and I know it ain't right
