

Say It

Youngn Lipz

Ooh, na na yeah
Ooh, na na yeah

Say it like you want it, yeah (like you want it)
Caught up in that moment, babe (caught up)
Tryna keep that focus, hit you on the low
Now she think I'm chosen, yeah
You are so important, baby (so important)
Don't think that you know it, yeah (don't think that you know me)
Going with the flow, tryna fix what's broke
Too late for that sorry, yeah, ay

I could be the one that's gon' show you off
Or be the one that's gon' do the most
And take you far away from here but you close to me
You don't know it yet but we're flowing babe
Heard you wanna take a ride with your best friend
Let you grab a hold of mine, I ain't testing
Love you to the beat
In the sheets know that, baby, I'm a beast

It ain't gonna be no kissing and caressing
I'm just tryna see what you got going later
All them stories that you hear, they're just haters (just haters)
I'ma do it for my youngin till I make it (I make it)
I ain't paying no attention 'cause they faking
Now we're doing other things and they notice
Had no reason to keep but we're going
We don't fold around here, I ain't bluffing

Caught up in that moment, babe (caught up)
Tryna keep that focus, hit you on the low
Now she think I'm chosen, yeah

Too many problems but I gotta solve them
I'll keep you close, why you stressing
We can slow it down with undressing
Be your teacher for the day, give you lessons
You do things they don't see but I notice
No, I can't believe heart yet I've stolen
Swear you never seen yourself with nobody like me

Others got a lot to say, they know where to find me
I can pull a few strings if you like it
Moments like this, we just gotta fight it
I can't really say no more
Pull up and I'll let it go

Say it like you want it, yeah (like you want it)
Caught up in that moment, babe (caught up)
