

Remember

Youngr

I can't forget
I can't forget
I can't forget
I can't forget

Right now, somehow, I wound up alone
Dreaming of a feeling I felt before you were gone
Drinking, thinking, how will I start again?
I try to forget (I can't forget), but I keep remembering

Just for a moment when I wake, I think we're still together
Then I realize it's my mistake now that you're gone forever
Just for a moment when I wake, I think we're still together
Then I remember, now that you're gone forever

I can't forget we're not in love anymore
I can't forget things will never be the same again
I can't forget we're not in love anymore
Then I remember, now that you're gone forever

Growing, knowing you're never coming back
Finally found my way around, just got my life on track
And then, just when I get to moving on
I try to forget (I can't forget), but I keep remembering

Just for a moment when I wake, I think we're still together
Then I realize it's my mistake now that you're gone forever
Just for a moment when I wake, I think we're still together
Then I remember, now that you're gone forever

I can't forget we're not in love anymore
I can't forget things will never be the same again
I can't forget we're not in love anymore
Then I remember, now that you're gone forever

(I can't forget) Yeah
(I can't forget) Then I remember
(I can't forget) Yeah
(I can't forget we're not in love)
Now that you're gone forever

I can't forget we're not in love anymore
I can't forget things will never be the same again
I can't forget we're not in love anymore
Then I remember, now that you're gone forever

(I can't forget you're gone) Yeah
(I can't forget) Now that you're gone forever
(I can't forget you're gone) Yeah
Then I remember, now that you're gone forever
