Reminiscing

Youngr

Reminiscing 'bout the younger days
Counting the stars
Memories come and go and fade away
But I know who you are

We stay indoors and just forget the rain
And lay on the carpet
We share our dreams and wish the pain away
I know who you are

But baby
I'm coming up
I surrender
To your love

And baby
I'm coming up
I surrender
To your touch

Now we're living in the brighter days
We'll never be apart
I can't think of better words to say
I know who you are

And maybe one day when we're old and grey
We'll lay on the carpet
And reminisce about the younger days
And know who we are

But baby
I'm coming up
I surrender
To your love

And baby
I'm coming up
I surrender
To your touch

To your love
To your touch
