

Superman

Youngr

Look at the mess I've made
I'm dodging the dragon's flame
I've cut up my feet from walking on your egg shells
Guess I'll be sleeping with the dogs again

Wish I could read your mind
'Cause then I would know my crime
This won't be the last time I'll be saying sorry but It's not like this happens all the time

I'll always do the best I can
To be your superman
Always do the best I can
To be your superman
Tell me that you understand
It's who I am
Yeah, I'm just a boy without a plan
But I'll always do the best I can
To be your superman

I never mean to be mean
So here's my apology
I'll pick up every penny from the wishing well
To show you how much you mean to me

I'll always do the best I can
To be your superman
Always do the best I can
To be your superman
Tell me that you understand
It's who I am
Yeah, I'm just a boy without a plan
But I'll always do the best I can
To be your superman

Tell me that you understand
It's who I am
Yeah, I'm just a boy without a plan
But I'll always do the best I can
To be your superman
