

The One

Youngr

In the dark stolen hearts
Separate lives a different part
Of the universe me and you
I float around in solitude
I swear to god each time I see
Your face I'm always losing sleep
A month a year passes by
Thoughts of you up in the sky

I can't replace the love we had
Can't replace the good for bad
Been so long still the pain's
Over me like purple rain
Locked up in my heart somewhere
I do sometimes stop and stare
I dare not send a message
Is anybody there

What if tomorrow never comes
What if tomorrow never comes
Wanna let you know you were the one
Oh let you know you were the one
What if tomorrow never comes
What if tomorrow never comes
Wanna let you know you were the one
Oh let you know you were the one

Sometimes I think and I drink
And wonder what you would think
About me now and who I am
The same wild thoughts in another land
Maybe you lay me to rest
And didn't tell me for the best
I still think I'd be destroyed
You're more than just a Polaroid

Someone that I used to know
Someone that I used to see
Isn't it ironic
I want everything you used to need
Locked up in my heart somewhere
I do sometimes stop and stare
I dare not send a message
Are you still there

Someone that I used to know
Someone that I used to see
Locked up in my heart somewhere
I dare not send a message
Are you still there

What if tomorrow never comes
What if tomorrow never comes
Wanna let you know you were the one
Oh let you know you were the one
What if tomorrow never comes
What if tomorrow never comes

Wanna let you know you were the one
Oh let you know you were the one

What if tomorrow never comes
What if tomorrow never comes
Wanna let you know you were the one
Oh let you know you were the one
