

What's Next

Youngr

Now, what's next is happening now

I don't wanna sound like I got it all figured out
Still got days that I wake up and I panic, yeah
So I take a deep breath, remind myself I got it all
Just need time to let my mind appreciate it, yeah

Now everybody's asking me what's next
When you gonna hit us with your best?
Please don't get me wrong
Just tryna enjoy the show, yeah
What else can I say?
What's next is happening, next is happening now

What's next is happening now
What's next is happening now

Wasn't too long ago that I was close to calling it quits
Now I'm a walking cliché
You know I'm living in the moment and all that, mm
I don't wanna say that this is as good as it will get
But just in case it is, I sure as hell take advantage, yeah

'Cause everybody's asking me what's next
But I'm not ready yet for that test
Please repeat the song
'Cause I've only started dancing, yeah
Nothing I would change
What's next is happening, next is happening now

What's next is happening now
What's next is happening now

Got my lady to come home to
My fellas on the road
I haven't had clean clothes in a week
But it's worth it for the rush
Of plane all over the world
And swimming in these oceans
Who knows how long I have to do this?
So excuse me while I do this right now

What's next is happening now
What's next is happening now

Everybody's asking me what's next
When you gonna hit us with your best?
Please don't get me wrong
Just tryna enjoy the show, yeah
'Cause everybody's asking me what's next
But I'm not ready yet for that test
Please repeat the song
'Cause I've only started dancing, yeah
