Hello hello hello hello
Hello hello hello hello
□□□ □ □□□□ □□□ □□

It's alright
Freely
Follow the wind

I'll watch over you
So you can do it
Look, you're already flying in the sky

Sometimes, things were hard, sometimes, things were good
Will I be able to bury all those moments?
We were together, we were lonely
So I'm trying to let us go

It hurt too much to have you
But that was how much I loved you
I'll never be able to walk on this path again
But I'll never forget the scenery
I'm gonna be alright

Hello hello hello hello
Hello hello hello hello
Standing in between the past and today

Hello hello hello hello
Hello hello hello hello
I've grown again today

Now tell me that you
Really really had to go for real
I can't handle the ever changing tomorrow
I tried to bring us together a hundred times
But our corners kept getting sharper
Now you got me feeling blue
Trying to get arrogant, thinking I can live without you
But it's useless mind control
More caffeine
Telling myself that's why I can't fall asleep
You told me every time
That breaking up before we start to hate each other is better
Man that's so stupid
What can I do? I have to get ready to let you go
Just as I learned from you
I'll fold away my heart
Let it fly away fly away

Sometimes, things were hard, sometimes, things were good
Will I be able to bury all those moments?
We were together, we were lonely
So I'm trying to let us go

It hurt too much to have you
But that was how much I loved you
I'll never be able to walk on this path again

But I'll never forget the scenery
I'm gonna be alright
