

I lost my aim to find another reason
A long way to come
It was hard to find way back

Have courage be kind
I wish that I did
No praying to be blessed
Only I can save myself

That's the courage to step
Forward the way you are
I wish it rescues all

Never hide away
Even if that lie to you
But that's alright
It is never betray
Depends on how hard try yourselves

Why can't you see the ways
Repeat the same
Ceaseless streams of search to find
And that's the way
Of touch the way we are

You don't have to try
To be a shining sun
The most beautiful thing
Is the moon reflecting the light

Someone said be strong
You must be something
Be sharp to high
Falsehood with nothing

That's not belief
You had inside already you have
I wish we rescue all

Never hide away
Even if that lie to you
But that's alright
It is never betray
Depends on how hard try yourselves

Why can't you see the ways
Repeat the same
Ceaseless streams of search to find
And that's the way
Of touch the way we are
