Out of my mind, we're shaking fakers
I'm gonna make my world, say goodbye to the losers
Mad dynamite, keep walking
Oh my God, all my friends are gasping
You know I've always lived life on my own terms
My cold heart is now a sunrise
This spark's burning bigger like the rock

Oh, I do whatever I want, bad boy
Burn it all up, fail road
Oh, let me know, let me know what you want
You feel a little

Icy, icy, I'm like ice
My heart's racing (Better watch my blade)
High kick, high kick, you react
I want the world, baby
The cold gaze pierces my heart
My heart's engulfed in flames, reload (You feel a little)

I got a cramp in front of everyone
But I'm not ashamed at all
I never melt (I never melt)
I don't know how to go back
So raw, you break so easily
Don't ever look down on us again, hey
