(Trip, trip, trip in a) I'm a traveler

I'm a traveler
I'm searching
Between the shattered pieces
I can sense your spot
Throw the dice
Your intense breath
Trust me and just follow
Colliding shards of stars, this infinity
Like fireworks, we might get lost
Uh, yeah, get it started, new level
Uh, yeah, take it, and then double it
Uh, again, bring it back
The space never been before, we travel, uh

The pale white dwarf star
Put life into it
And it's born again
I can't stop to find you

Bomb your heartbeat, send me a signal
I'm a traveler
Bomb your heartbeat, send me a signal
Pull me in
So I can melt
Give me more thrill
I can't stop
I'm lost in your universe

Yeah, ooh
What?

I stand this travel
You wake up to my secret plans
Storm wave like, it's a signal
Push them aside, uncover it
I search for you lost in the secret
No time to waste, quickly move
Bored of the rule, too typical
Yawning as I'm held way behind
Now it's time for me to let it out
In this vast universe on finding you, I'm betting

The pale white dwarf star
Put life into it
And it's born again
I can't stop to find you

Bomb your heartbeat, send me a signal
I'm a traveler
Bomb your heartbeat, send me a signal
Pull me in
So I can melt
Give me more thrill
I can't stop
I'm lost in your universe

Oh, woah

Deep down to you

Got it got it got it got it
In search of you
Answer me
