

Regenerate

Your Memorial

No sign of life on the horizon

(Truth unknown)

Truth unknown from nature's light

(Darknest night)

Breaking through the darkest night

A valley immense full of dry bones

Can life come from death? Only you know

Bringing forth life never to return void

Regenerate

Dry bones, take on flesh

Breathe again, regenerate

(Truth unknown)

A truth unknown from nature's light

(Death to life)

Bringing what was dead to life

The bones once scattered join together in place

Thr shadow of death disseminates, regenerate

Dry bones, take on flesh

Breathe again, regenerate

(Truth unknown)

A truth unknown from nature's light

(Death to life)

Bringing what was dead to life

Wind blows through the valley

Moving sovereign and unseen

Bones rise as an army

Standing absolute and free

Called out of darkness into marvelous light

Once degenerate, now regenerate
