

Change of Heart

Your Smith

Picking a fight again
Isn't it wearin' thin
It's getting hard to tell
It's getting hard to call

Maybe the reason
We're falling apart
Why we're falling apart

Isn't my sister
Or you crashing my car
It's change of heart

It's a whiff of a feeling that grows in your sleep
Keeping you up til the dawn
How many phones can you throw at a wall?
It's a change, it's a change of heart

You keep the sofa
Just keep it all
And start walking it off

Why do we keep on
Making it hard
It's a change of heart

It's a shift of some weight that builds on your back
Catching your balance off guard
How many feelings can you throw to the dogs
It's a change, it's a change of heart

Here I am
It's 10:00 AM
I'm putting you back in my phone again
I never claimed
I was good at clean breaks
Or spending the night alone, but damn

(Maybe the reason)
(We're falling apart)
Why we're falling apart

Why we're falling apart
I may be the reason
I may be the reason
Why we're falling apart
