Wake up, wake up
The time is useless to me, it's useless to you
Wake up, wake up
Turn away, take it over take it over again
Take it over, take it over again
Take this piece of me, burn away
What can't you see that I don't have to go
It's time and distance for everyone
It's time and distance for everyone

Wake up, wake up
Now that you've got it won't go away
Take this piece of me
Take this piece of me, turn away
No impor, not important
I'm over here again and over here's where I'm from Take it over, take it over again (Why? Why?)
Well I can't deal what you feel
It's time and distance for everyone (Wake up...)
It's time and distance for everyone (Wake up...)
Wake up, wake up (Wake up...)
