

Lost In Nostalgia

Youth Brigade

Remember when we used to be great friends Crazy days would never end, we screamed the world was ours to change
You look back now, speak mournfully of the past As if your youth has come and gone -- Your whole damn life died with the songs

And oh, lost in nostalgia
What happened to the spirit of we can do anything?
And oh, lost in nostalgia
Getting older doesn't mean you must give up all your dreams

Sure you have a job now, a family, responsibilities When we were young it was just good fun, now you've grown up anyhow
I don't wanna hear how things have changed, it's not the same Life goes on, we must move on, the problems still remain

And oh, lost in nostalgia
What happened to the spirit of we can do anything?
And oh, lost in nostalgia
Getting older doesn't mean you must give up all your
dreams

Remember those days gone by, smile and hold them dear But don't let the rest of your life die with that cynic's fear
It was a special time and there's more to come The struggles continues around the world for us to survive

And oh, lost in nostalgia
What happened to the spirit of we can do anything?
And oh, lost in nostalgia
Getting older doesn't mean you must give up all your
dreams
