

Deep Red Sea

Youth Lagoon

Finally found the address
Junkie on a backyard mattress
We sleep to kill the time

Dolly walks out of the light
Handful of licorice tight
Ready and waiting for war
The ace on the sideline

And when the mist rolls through
This crystal ball that I see into...
I know
You spread that blood like butter
Deep red sea

And when the mist rolls through
Why can't you say, 'I believe in you'?
I know
You spread that blood like butter
Deep red sea

Day by day I shudder
Night by night you speak
You spread that blood like butter
Deep red sea

The moon has lost its color
I still love you too
I spread that blood like butter
Just like you

Locked up in his own cell
Think I like my own hell better
The fire's dying in mine

Dolly walks out of the light
Handful of licorice tight
No one is seeing the wave
Of tears that come each night
