God Only Knows

Y&T

Eyes that look out across the sky
Eyes that look and wonder why
Hearts of hope, hearts that fly
Heart of pain, and these eyes that cry

God only knows us all
God only sees, what's going on
God only knows

Beyond the dream, beyond the pain
Life goes on and we start again
There's so much that I don't know about
There's so much, but it all works out

God only knows us all
God only sees, what's going on
God only knows

Are we just a freak show in a big fishbowl
Going round and round
Spinning on a stone, in a twilight zone
Are we really all alone?

Lay my head down, turn out the light
As I pray it all will be all right
Silently I close my eyes
As I whisper to the world, goodnight

God only knows
