

Love Gone Wrong

Y&T

You walk alone on deserted streets tonight
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
Now you know what the pain of love is like
It's never been black and white

It's becoming all too clear
What you need to make it
The truth always cuts to the bone
Ooh, and you want it
Got to have it
Got to have it, ooh

Love gone wrong the first time
Love gone wrong the very first time
Love gone wrong the first time
Love gone wrong, it's just too bad this time

You count your friends one by one
Back in the place that once was home
What were just memories now all turn to stone
Nothing matters when you're all alone

It's becoming all too clear
What you need to make it
The truth always cuts to the bone
Ooh, and you want it
Got to have it
Got to have it, ooh

Love gone wrong the first time
Love gone wrong the very first time
Love gone wrong the first time
Love gone wrong, it's just too bad this time

Love gone wrong the first time
Love gone wrong the very first time
Love gone wrong the first time
Love gone wrong, it's just too bad this time
