

Voices

Y&T

Don't talk to me, leave me alone
Inside my mind's a battle zone
There's a war that rages in my head
And I can't hear what you said

All these voices scream in my head
Voices from all the things that you've said

Seven sins, the voices scream
And seven times I walked away
Wishing that they'd set me free
All the demons that I can't escape

All these voices scream in my head
Voices from all the things that you've said
