It's weird
Our relationship seemed like it would never change
We stop at the stop line
Waiting for the green light but the light (Why it doesn't change)
Yeah, red alert your attitude changing gradually
Although I pretend to be fine on the outside
Hold my tongue du-du-du-du packed and stacked
Go round and round, make a u-turn although in a hurry

Narrow the space between us to move forward
Don't say anything I'll hug you (Yeah, yeah)

Just one minute yes just one
Can we be friendly?
Just one minute really just one
Can we go back again?

We just need one, one, one, one, one minute (One minute)
We just need one, one, one, one, one minute (One minute)
We just need one, one, one, one, one minute (One minute)
We just need one (We just need one), we just need one minute (Ooh, ooh)

We have to go back to where we begin
To our hot summer
Spring will come with our efforts
Let me dream, into your arms (Yeah, yeah)
My heart flutters just looking at you, can't even think about holding hands
Looking at pictures taken every anniversary made me stay up all night
Yes, I kinda miss those days, I get tear up a bit
We need to talk don't go and come here, let's talk ten minutes, no, just one minute

Narrow the space between us to move forward
Don't say anything I'll hug you

Just one minute yes just one
Can we be friendly?
Just one minute really just one
Can we go back again?
