

Summer Blues

YUGYEOM

You make me lose control
By letting go
And I hate it
When you're acting crazy
Been through this tragedy it's tough
Sometimes I
Feel like I've been dreaming all along
It doesn't even matter
If you're right or wrong
I guess I only saw the good in you before
Can't stop this train
'Cause you keep moving on

Baby, you're the paranoise in my headache
But my heart's beating for you like an addict
Will we grow? I don't know
Where we're headed for
So, I sing this song for you (You)

Singing my summer blues (Blues)
Hot by the day, as you turn so cold (So cold)
How many times will you let me go? (Let me go)
Can you hear my summer blues?

Feel like It's all my fault
I messed it up
I don't get it
I'm just not good at it
When we're at it
Things get rough
So, help me
Clean up all the things
You threw and broke
I need to find a little
Peace inside this home
Sayless cause baby, you'll be
Storming out the door
In any minute, I can't hold you long

Baby, you're the kryptonite in my planet
But my heart's beating for you like an addict
Lead me on, instead, you're gone
Don't know what's going on
So, I sing this song for you (You)

Singing my summer blues (Blues)
Hot by the day, as you turn so cold (So cold)
How many times will you let me go? (Let me go)
Can you hear my summer blues? (Blues)
Still, I believe in you (You)
Hot by the day, as you turn so cold (So cold)
Shivering skin, let me hold you close (Hold you close)
Can you hear my summer blues?

Can you hear my summer blues?
