Burn my broken heart
For all countless times
I'm going to say something that I've been waiting to say
Like it never happened, you departed

In disarray, as if I'm flying away
With you deeply in my heart

You played my love like a game
I gave it my best with all my heart
When the flowers bloom beautifully and turned red
You broke it and far way, you departed (You departed)

Sewing up the time that's been cut into pieces
No matter how many times I look back
We're just like fireworks that sparkle and quickly put out
I'm becoming pieces of ash (oh)

As if my eyes are turning red
With you deeply in my heart

You played my love like a game
I gave it my best with all my heart
When the flowers bloom beautifully and turned red
You broke it and far way, you departed (You departed)

Like this game was meaningless
I am so exhausted and tired
Take off the last leaf and fly away
So long

You played my love like a game
I gave it my best with all my heart
When the flowers bloom beautifully and turned red
You broke it and far way, you departed (You departed)
