Yuksek

"Hello Janet"
Hi sorry new phone, who's this?
"It's Yuksek, I was just wondering what you were doing tonight"
Oh hey man, I'm just at a party
What are you doing?
"Just working on some new tracks
You wanna join in? "
Oh that sounds cool, why don't you put the kettle on
And I'll be there in a minute

I make you nervous, you make me calm
I've had too many others like you in my arms
You think I'm gorgeous, you think I'm fine
Every time you call, you never get me on the line
'Cause I'm engaged, to someone else
And every time you hit me up, you end up on the shelf
Give you a minute, give you an age
And when I write the book, you could be on the third page

This is the start
This is the start
This is the start
(This is the start)

This is the start
This is the start
This is the start
This is the start

I make you nervous, you make me calm
You think I'm fine
I think you're gorgeous, I think you're fine
Everyday I ask you out, you never have the time
You're in demand, I'm just a man
And every time I hit you up, you say you're in Japan
Give you a minute, give you an age
And when I write the book, you could be on the third page

This is the start
This is the start
This is the start
(This is the start)

This is the start
This is the start
This is the start
This is the start

Is this the start?
This is the start of something (Gorgeous)
