

Truth

Yukse

If I stay
For you
If I break
My words
Would you fall apart?
Would you shut me up?

No, I don't know the truth
And I don't wanna know
When it comes down to you
There's so much to be told

We are enough away from the truth
I don't know, there's no way for a chance
(We are enough away from the truth)
(We are enough away from the truth)

If you hold on to the stars
I'll wait
But if you jump right in the dark
I will play your games
If you hold on to the stars
I'll wait
But if you jump right in the dark
I will play your games
(I will play your games)

No, I don't know the truth
And I don't wanna know
When it comes down to you
There's so much to be told

No, I don't know the truth
And I don't wanna know
When it comes down to you
There's so much to be told

We are enough away from the truth
I don't know, there's no way for a chance
(We are enough away from the truth)
(We are enough away from the truth)
(We are enough away)
(We are enough away)
