

Be Someone

Yuna

I don't wanna leave this place
Everything that I've ever known
The sun is always hot out here
But you could feel the wind in your bones

Blue eyes, perfect teeth
Yea, I don't Think I'm cut out for this
I know
The life's too fast for me
I don't know what I'm chasing
I remember thinking
I was gonna make it
And just be someone, be someone

You ask me why
Oh, why
I let my dreams die
In the cold city lights
Oh I, I sold my soul for a little while
So I could be someone
Fake a little smile
So I could be someone
Tell a little lie
So I could be someone

It's always too loud for me
I can't even hear us talking
Everybody's rushing
Everybody's tryna get to somewhere

It's dangerous to think
That I belong in
Such a place, yea, I don't
The life's too fast for me
I don't even know what I'm chasing
Remember them saying
I was gonna make it
And just be someone, be someone

You ask me why
Oh, why
I let my dreams die
In the cold city lights
So I could be someone
Fake a little smile
So I could be someone
Tell a little lie
So I could be someone

Ooh ooh ooh
Tell a little lie so I
Ooh ooh ooh
Yeah

You ask me why

Oh, why
I let my dreams die
So I could be someone
Fake a little smile
So I could be someone
Tell a little lie
So I could be someone
