

Poor Heart

Yuna

My poor, poor heart
I know you're tired of this all
I know I
I made the same mistakes a lot

I know you never make a sound
When you crash onto the ground
When I fall
For someone
I know I always let you down

But I'll never give up
Never giving up
Giving you up for love
For love

I'll never give up
Never giving up
Giving you up for love
For love

My poor, poor heart
I remember when you red
Now you're tough
Slowly turning into black

I know you never make a sound
Require in my hollow chest
When I yell at someone
You're louder than a breaking glass

But I'll never give up
Never giving up
Giving you up for love
For love

I'll never give up
Never giving up
Giving you up for love
For love

Giving you for love
You up for love

Are you thinking what I'm thinking
I think it's time for you to start beating again
For love
Are you feeling what I'm feeling
Should we go again
Go give another chance

For love, yeah, for love

But I'll never give up on you
Never giving up
Giving you up for love
For love

I'll never give up
Never giving up
For love
