

Flower Girl

Yung Baby Tate

Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh

I heard you're getting married today
I didn't get an invitation
I wouldn't wanna go anyway
'Cause I've been workin' on my patience
I couldn't be there if I wanted to
It would be rude to stare right in front of you
I'm not supposed to care, but that's what I'm gonna do
'Cause I should be there, I should be in front of you
In front of your mama
The whole entire family and all of your partners
We had so many problems, though
Couldn't get the formula to solve it, no
Baby, I know that I can't go
And see that preacher speak in that robe
You know, when they told me, I froze
My heart was beatin', now it's broke

Because I know when the flower girl walks down the aisle
And she's all dressed up in platinum white
Tears will flow, tears will flow right from my eyes
I can't, I can't sing, "Here Comes the Bride"

Roses are red, baby, violets are blue
I'd pick a hundred flowers for you
If you just toss that bouquet my way
Just toss that bouquet my way
Roses are red, baby, violets are blue
I'd pick a hundred flowers for you
If you just toss that bouquet my way
Just toss that bouquet my way

If you just toss that bouquet my way (My way, way, toss it)
Toss it my way (My way), toss it my way (Yeah)

You know I got to speak my peace now (Speak now, speak now)
I can't just hold it down forever (Hold it down)
And see you with her, together
'Cause you know it's T-R-U-E (It's true, baby)
That should be me (That should be me with you, baby)

I know when the flower girl walks down the aisle
And she's all dressed up in platinum white
Tears will flow, tears will flow right from my eyes
I can't, I can't sing, "Here Comes the Bride"

Roses are red, baby, violets are blue
I'd pick a hundred flowers for you
If you just toss that bouquet my way (Toss it my way)
Just toss that bouquet my way (Just toss it my way)
Roses are red, baby, violets are blue
I'd pick a hundred flowers for you
If you just toss that bouquet my way

Just toss that bouquet my way

Oh, roses are red (Toss it my way, can you toss it my way?)

Oh, violets are blue (Toss it my way, can you toss it my way?)

Roses are red (Toss it my way, can you toss it my way?)

Can you toss it

Violets are blue (Toss it my way, my way)
