

Green

Yung Baby Tate

Baby when I'm gone
Get my story straight
Cause it won't be too long
Till I pull off in that range
You see I tried to put you on
Give you all this game
But you slept too long
It's a goddamn shame

So please don't hit me up
When I start popping off
Cause it ain't no making up
For the time that got lost
You know where I been
And you know what I been on
So you know that when you call
I won't pick up the phone

Goddamn what happened to you
All of a sudden you acting brand new
Like you got a glimpse
Of what your life could have been
If you were me instead of being you
Hurt, don't it?
Go get a life & then work on it
Because you could never be me
I'm every single color of the rainbow
And you gone be forever green

I know you jealous & I know exactly why
Cause I'm the one you love
And I'm the one that you despise
I know you jealous so I do not wonder why
Everytime you look my way
I see the green all in your eyes

I peeped you in the corner
Creeping on the low
Watching my every move
When you thought I didn't know
So I'm putting on a show
I know you like what you see
Cause I'm what yo nigga want
And I'm what you wanna be

So Imma hit you up
When I drop him off
Cause you look but never touch
Listen but never talk
So we need to have a talk
Before I run out of words
All you wanna do is squawk
That's why I don't mess with birds

Can somebody get this
Bird ass buttermilk biscuit bulit body bitch
The fuck out my business

Aww man pardon my French
Unless you talking bout some kisses
Then you can take em to my ass
And I'll put your tears in a glass
Sip it slow then imma smoke you
Cause you green like the gas

I know you jealous & I know exactly why
Cause I'm the one you love
And I'm the one that you despise
I see the green all in your eyes

I know you jealous baby
I know you envy me
But you can't help it baby
That's why yo skin so green
Because you jealous baby
I know you envy me
But you can't help it, huh
That's why you jealous huh

All we wear is pink
Like every month is October
You can't sit with us
So please do not come any closer
Everyday is Wednesday
All we wear is pink
No you cannot sit with us
You got on too much green

I know you jealous & I know exactly why
Cause I'm the one you love
And I'm the one that you despise
I know you jealous so I do not wonder why
