

Rainbow

Yung Bae

Hold it right there
Double take like a double rainbow
I'll regret it if I don't even ask
Won't even ask
Like, what's going on? What you doing here?
I just wanna know more

Are we? How can I break the ice?
Skin feels like it's hailing fire
I'm gonna run and hide
I'ma sit around and stare right out the window

Rain keeps falling, waiting for my rainbow
Sun keeps shining, making me go blind
Wonder if you'll ever know my pain though
Maybe that would make you change your mind

My rainbow
My rainbow
My rainbow

Lifelong intuition
My friends seem to miss you (Being around)
'Cause when you're gone like this
I just sit around and stare right out the window, yeah

Rain keeps falling, waiting for my rainbow
Sun keeps shining, making me go blind
Wonder if you'll ever know my pain though
Maybe that would make you change your mind

Cloudy skies, I'm waiting for my rainbow (My rainbow)
Sun is setting, still I'm looking far and wide
B-b-b-b-baby, don't you know I'm right here waiting for you?
Hopefully I'll get to change your mind
My rainbow

Rain keeps falling, waiting for my rainbow (My rainbow)
Sun keeps shining, making me go blind (My rainbow)
I wonder if you'll ever know my pain though
Maybe it would make you change your mind
Make you change your mind
