

Get Slatted

Yung Bleu

(jwestbeats)

Everybody screamin' slatt

'Til they get slatted

Everybody screamin' slatt until they get splatted (Hey, Foreign)

Before I go to sleep, I pray for understanding

God knows a nigga play with me, it's gon' get nasty

I'd sell every chain that I got to see my granny

Nigga, you know my name is all I got, that's on my family

Pull up with that .38, it's too late to run

And I put him on First 48, you know I got the drum

Bah-bah-bah-bum, we comin' through, nigga, where you runnin' to?

These niggas know what's up with Bleu and you know I don't fuck with you (Th is what I tell 'em, nigga)

Everybody screamin' slatt, but don't wanna get slatted

Everybody screamin' slatt until they get splatted

Pull up with them automatics, nigga, send the addy

Pull up with them automatics, nigga, send the addy

Hit that corner, slime 'em out, hit that corner, slime, slime

Hit that corner, slime 'em out, hit that corner, slime, slime

Hit that corner, slime 'em out, hit that corner, slime, slime

Hit that corner, slime 'em out, hit that corner, slime, slime

Damn, heard them screamin' gang shit

These niggas don't know no better

Just to get famous

These niggas don't know no better

I never lane switched

Stayed in my section, you come through with all that flexin', get your brain split

That gun ain't seen no action

On the block thuggin' in my Reebok Classics

Thug and Lil Kota, it get slimy

In that bottom by that blue house is where you find me

It get grimy

This what they screamin'

Everybody screamin' slatt, but don't wanna get slatted

Everybody screamin' slatt until they get splatted

Pull up with them automatics, nigga, send the addy

Pull up with them automatics, nigga, send the addy

Hit that corner, slime 'em out, hit that corner, slime, slime

Hit that corner, slime 'em out, hit that corner, slime, slime

Hit that corner, slime 'em out, hit that corner, slime, slime

Hit that corner, slime 'em out, hit that corner, slime, slime

I put fifty in this Glock, I up that bitch and hit 'em nine times

Nigga play and it get deadly, we gon' up that stick like he was blind

I ain't sayin' that I'm gangster, but I never let 'em play with mine

Before you cross me, better choose wise

Before you cross me, better think wisely

Went and flooded out this Patek, it was perfect timing

Couldn't depend up on my daddy, so I started grinding

Everybody screamin' slatt, but don't wanna get slatted

Everybody screamin' slatt until they get splatted
