Yung Bleu

(Woo)
Put fear in my heart (woah)
No I don't really trust nobody
But you not just anybody
For me she on go
Like an energizer, take my heart
I'm tryna hide you like a monster in my closet

That's why I'm afraid to love you
That's why I'm afraid to love you
That's why I'm afraid to love you

It's not fair to judge you but it's way more easy
What if I told you I don't trust you and I got my reasons
What if I told you I'd be switching up my hoes like the seasons
'Cause I don't wanna fall in love no more

I put you on, I gave you game, I almost gave you a son
Even though I hate your fucking guts, I swear I know you won
And do he know about that secret spot, know how to make it cum
Hope you ain't show him about them secret things you do with your tongue

No I don't really trust nobody
But you not just anybody
For me she on go
Like an energizer, take my heart
I'm tryna hide you like a monster in my closet

That's why I'm afraid to love you
That's why I'm afraid to love you
That's why I'm afraid to love you
I'm afraid to love

Fucking you like lovers do
Checking at the double you
You finally found a substitute
How could I be so dumb, I mean
How could I be so gullible
I miss how I would call to you
How could I get so comfortable yeah

It cut me clean and cut me close
I hope that I don't overdose
I'm mixing up this deadly potion
My heart frozen comatose
And fucking like we enemies, opioids
I might take 'bout 10 of these
Call on guard it's too late
I'm in love with a demon
See the blood on you, the blood on me
It's fucked up that you watch me bleed
I tried to leave, forgot my keys
And now I'm speeding back to you
Just like a relationship, right?
This the situation, shit right
I don't think you making that flight
We got shit to talk about right

You just can't be walking out right
When I look in your eyes I get frightened
I'm afraid to love you

That why I'm afraid to love you
That why I'm afraid to love you
That why I'm afraid to love you
I'm afraid to love

No, no I don't really trust nobody
But you not just anybody
For me she on go, like an energizer
You like a monster in my closet
That's why I'm afraid to love you
