Yung Kayo

La-la, la-la
La-la, la-la

I don't even wanna save her
It's no logic, it's your human behavior
Niggas will try to befriend you but if you were me, I swear tha

Woke with the pointer, we ganged up
That harmony, I make her sing, yeah
Don't run off the clock if you know what I mean
DFTK, took this shit to the grave

She wait for the ice, I'm like Kripsy Kreme
I put psychadelics on my kidney
You always live for a theory

There was disagreements after the miscarriage
I run down the opps just like I run the errands
I run double back three like I'm Larry Lane
I get the blue, the blue fairy
Pussy, what these niggas inheriting
I put sauce on your head, let it marinate
If I whip out McDonalds then get the M
Said she move, run away, told her I been here
Came out the mud like a motherfuckin' piggy
In the [?], cause it's lit there
I'm on the run like a big hare
I don't want nobody catching up
The motor, I hop in the 'Rari, baby you know you not fast enoug h
I got the bank and you know I'm not sorry, cause I said that I' m passin' you
Straight by my shoulder, he might made my button up
I got that bitch in the A and we cutting up
I don't even know, she don't want love
I don't even know, she don't want love

I don't even wanna save her
It's no logic, just human behavior
Niggas will try to befriend you but if you were me, I swear tha t I don't change, yeah
Woke with the pointer, we ganged up
That harmony, I make her sing, yeah
Don't run off the clock if you know what I mean
